ELDER LAW

living with alzheimer's

for caregivers

an education program by the alzheimer's association

When someone is diagnosed with Alzheimer's, friends and family have many questions. What does the diagnosis mean? What kinds of plans need to be made? What resources are available to help? As the disease progresses, new questions reflect growing needs for skills, programs and services. Join us for this series of programs that provide answers to the questions that arise in the early, middle and late stages of the disease. Hear from those directly affected and learn what you need to know, what you need to plan, and what you can do at each point along the way.

Part One — The Early Stages

This program will cover the symptoms apparent during the early stages of Alzheimer's disease, legal, financial, and long-term care planning.

Tuesday, June 26th, 5-7 pm

Part Two — The Middle Stages

This program will cover the behavioral changes common in the middle stages of Alzheimer's disease, implementing professional care, and how to pay for it.

Tuesday, July 10th, 5-7 pm

Part Three — The Late Stages

This program will cover the increasing demands of the late stages of Alzheimer's disease, communication changes, and end-of-life planning

Tuesday, July 31st, 5-7 pm
